*What is ORCiD?

ORCiD is a not-for-profit organization that assigns 16-digit persistent digital identifiers (the ORCiD ID) to researchers. It allows you to maintain a bibliography in a manner that distinguishes you from other researchers with a similar name.

Claiming papers with your ORCiD ID in ADS

Step 1.

After creating an ORCiD ID, sign into ORCiD in ADS.

Step 2.

Fill out your ORCiD settings in ADS (you must be signed into your ADS account). Add any other names you've published under and give permission to ADS to access your ORCiD profile.

Step 3.

Search for your name in ADS, then click the Claim in ORCID button on your papers. Approved claims will be searchable within 24 hours.
